

The Indigent Brahman

Little goblins tumble out of the clay pot.

My name: _____

A story from Bengal (shared heritage of Bangladesh and West Bengal, India)

Retold from a public-domain Bengali folktale collected by the Rev. Lal Behari Day in Folk-Tales of Bengal (Macmillan, 1883), from the shared oral tradition of Bangladesh and India's West Bengal.