

The Badger and the Bear

The wise old fox listens to the badger.

My name: _____

A story from Santee Dakota (Sioux), northern Plains

Retold from "Wigwam Evenings: Sioux Folk Tales Retold" (1909), set down by Charles A. Eastman, called Ohiyesa, who was born Santee Dakota and grew up hearing these stories long before he ever wrote them, together with his wife Elaine Goodale Eastman.